

00-0884 J.B. v. Wasatch Constructors Issued: 2-19-02

J. B. asks the Utah Labor Commission to review the Administrative Law Judge's determination of Mr. B.'s claim for benefits under the Utah Workers' Compensation Act ("the Act"; Title 34A, Chapter 2, Utah Code Ann.).

The Labor Commission exercises jurisdiction over this motion for review pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §63-46b-12, Utah Code Ann. §34A-2-801(3) and Utah Admin. Code R602-2-1.M.

DISCUSSION and ORDER

Mr. B. filed a motion for review claiming temporary total disability compensation for a period of time beginning February 12, 2001, related to recommended shoulder surgery. David W. Parker, Mr. B.'s attorney during part of this proceeding, filed a Petition for Attorney Fees.

Based on subsequent correspondence from the parties, there appears to be no issue remaining in dispute. The Commission therefore dismisses Mr. B.'s motion for review and Mr. Parker's Petition for Attorney fees.

Dated this 19th day of February, 2002.

R. Lee Ellertson, Commissioner
